Dave is a 1993 comedy written by Gary Ross and directed by Ivan Reitman. Bill Mitchell is the philandering and distant President of the United States. Dave Kovic is a sweet-natured and caring Temp Agency operator, who by a staggering coincidence looks exactly like the President. As such, when Mitchell wants to escape an official Luncheon, the Secret Service hires Dave to stand in for him. Unfortunately, Mitchell suffers a fatal stroke and Dave finds himself stuck in the role indefinitely.

Pride of the Yankees is a biography directed by Sam Wood. This biopic traces the life of Lou Gehrig, famous baseball player who played in 2130 consecutive games before falling at age 37 to ALS, a deadly nerve disease which now bears his name. Gehrig is followed from his childhood in New York until his famous 'Luckiest Man' speech at his farewell day in 1939.

Sunday, 1:30pm - February 27th

How the West Was Won is a Western from 1946 directed by John Ford and written by James R. Webb. Setting off on a journey to the west in the 1830s, the Prescott family run into a man named Linus who helps them fight off a pack of thieves. Linus then marries daughter Eve Prescott, and 30 years later goes off with their son to fight in the Civil War, with bloody results. Eve's sister Lily heads farther west and has adventures with a professional gambler, stretching all the way to 1880s San Francisco.
